

Amendments to the Specification

The Examiner objected to the specification on the basis that sheets 2-9 have copy machine marks which render portions of the description illegible. A substitute specification is provided herein. Applicant requests that the Examiner withdraw the objection to the specification.